Youth's Role Crucial in Viksit Bharat - Union Home Minister of State Shri Bandi Sanjay Kumar

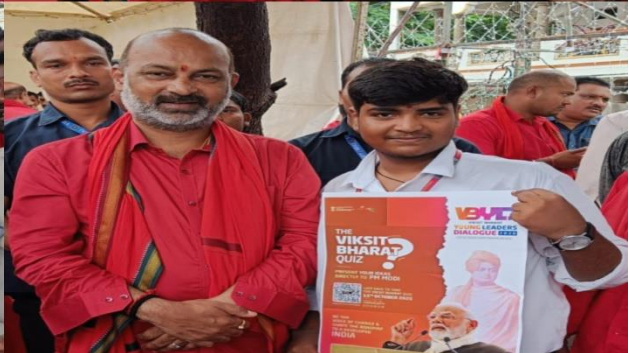

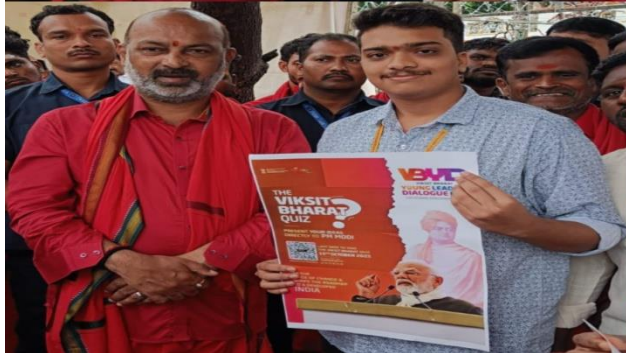

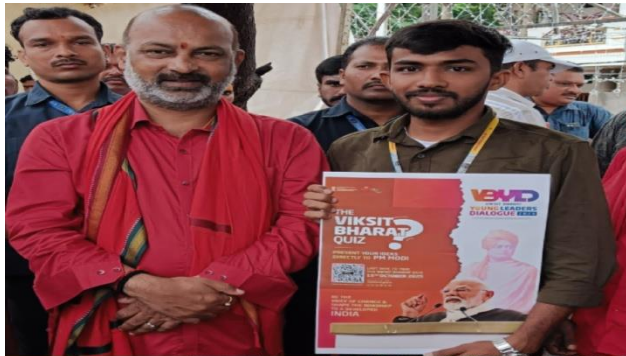

Union Home Minister of State Shri Bandi Sanjay Kumar said that the youth's role is crucial in Viksit Bharat and the future of the country lies in their hands. Today, at the Mahashakti Temple in Karimnagar, students from Vaagdevi Engineering College, Warangal district, met Shri Bandi Sanjay Kumar and unveiled the wall poster of the "Viksit Bharat Young Leaders Dialogue" program.

Addressing the students, Shri Bandi Sanjay Kumar said that for building Viksit Bharat, the youth need to come together and think about the country's future, which will lead to rapid development. He advised the youth to take Swami Vivekananda as their role model and move forward with discipline, values, patriotism, and social enthusiasm.

Under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the goal is to make India a Viksit Bharat by 2047. He urged the youth to participate in the Viksit Bharat Young Leaders Quiz, where the top performers will get an opportunity to meet the Prime Minister and participate in the National Youth Festival.

Shri Bandi Sanjay Kumar also announced that he would be attending the Viksit Bharat conference soon to be held at Vaagdevi College. On this occasion, he appreciated Professor Mohammad Azam, the NSS program officer, and the students of Vaagdevi College for taking forward the Viksit Bharat program.
